

Table of Contents

Topic	Page	Topic	Page
Introduction .....	4	Marketing .....	23
Letter to Piano Teachers		Marketing Your Program
About Music for Little Mozarts		Student Lists
Curriculum Materials and Supplies		Logo Guidelines
Teaching Formats &amp; Equipment .....	9	Poster
Establishing Your Program		Advertising
Private Teaching Format		Print Publications
Group Teaching Format		Business Cards
Grouping Students		Flyers
Size of Groups		Image Brochure
Class Length		Layout and Copy Guidelines for Display Advertising
Equipment Needs for Classroom		Display Ad
Classroom Setup for Group Teaching		Classified Ad
Location .....	11	Newspaper Articles and Press Releases
Types of Facilities: Evaluating the Benefits		Media Release Form
The Music Store Advantage		Create a Newsworthy Happening
The Community Music School Advantage		Getting Publicity
Additional Factors to Consider		Press Release
Acquiring Teaching Space		Direct Mail
Initial Meeting Agenda		Postcard
Liability Insurance		Preschool Presentation
Contracts		Letter to Preschool Director
Inquiry Letter from New Teacher		Library Presentation
Inquiry Letter from Established Teacher		Referrals
Enrolling and Scheduling .....	15	Summer Course
Phone Calls		Maintaining Enrollment .....	33
Interview/Demonstration Lesson		Retention
Parent Interview		Mini-Recital
Student Demonstration Lesson		Spring Recital Photographs
Registering the Student		Birthday Cards/Postcard Praises
Scheduling Strategies		Birthday Boutique
Age Requirement		Camp Component
Parent Welcome Letter		Graduation from Music for Little Mozarts
Tuition and Policies .....	19	Classroom Management
Policy Considerations		Appendix .....	35
Fee Structures		Early Childhood and Music Advocacy Organizations
Payment Options and Discounts		The Non-Musical Benefits of Piano Study
Policy & Tuition Brochure			